PURPOSE AND OUTCOME

Course Overview:
The purpose of this course is to provide the student with basic understanding of pathophysiological conditions in occupational therapy practice as a change from normal physiological functioning of various systems of the human body. The course is based on illness and disease within an occupational therapy framework with an emphasis on definition and descriptions, incidence and prevalence, signs and symptoms, course and prognosis, and impact on occupational participation and performance. The course focuses on critical thinking used to analyze signs and symptoms based on knowledge, understanding, and integration of pathophysiological considerations related to select conditions commonly encountered by in occupational therapy practice.

Relation to Program Outcomes:
This course is one of the basic science courses taught in the first year of the OTD program and designed to introduce an occupational lens on disease. The knowledge gained in this course is necessary for subsequent courses addressing occupational therapy clinical assessment and treatment across the lifespan. The focus is on instructional outcomes related to the following curriculum themes: human occupation and health, critical thinking for practice and scholarship, and collaborative practice.

Course Objectives and/or Goals
This course partially meets one of the Education Standards for the American Council for the Accreditation of OT Education (ACOTE). The student will:

Instructional Methods

Blended Learning

What is blended learning and why is it important?

A Blended Learning class uses a mixture of technology and face-to-face instruction to help you maximize your learning. Knowledge content that, as the instructor, I would have traditionally presented during a live class lecture may be provided online before the live class takes place. This lets me focus my face-to-face teaching on course activities designed to help you strengthen higher order thinking skills such as critical thinking, problem solving, and collaboration. Competency in these skills is critical for today’s health professional.

Course material will be presented in a variety of formats, using both live and online recordings and live training. Pre- and post-class assignments may include text-readings, PowerPoint presentations, online quizzes, and videos. Students will be expected to discuss and apply pre-class assignment materials. Both in class and online discussions will be required.

What is expected of you?

You are expected to actively engage in the course throughout the semester. You must come to class prepared by completing all out-of-class assignments. This preparation gives you the knowledge or practice needed to engage in higher levels of learning during the live class sessions. If you are not prepared for the face-to-face sessions, you will struggle to keep pace with the activities occurring in the live sessions, and it is unlikely that you will reach the higher learning goals of the course. Similarly, you are expected to actively participate in the live class. Your participation fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers that facilitates overall mastery of the course objectives.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Assignments

The class grade is based on three types of assignments: quizzes, exams, and a group assignment.

• Quizzes: online quizzes on material from readings and lecture (synchronous and blended).

• Exams - Collaborative Two-Stage Testing:

  o In collaborative two-stage testing, students first complete and turn in the exam individually and then, working in small groups, answer the same exam questions again. During the group exam students receive immediate, targeted feedback on their solutions from their peer colleagues and see alternative approaches to the problems. This makes the exam itself a valuable learning experience and elevates the value of collaborative learning.

  o Students will receive an individual exam grade.

  o Students will receive a group exam grade.

  o Exams have 30-40 questions each.

  o Multiple choice questions are used to assess critical thinking in relation to knowledge and skills learned in the course and are provided in the style used on the NBCOT Certification Exam (e.g., there may be more than one “right” answer, but the student must identify the “best” answer). The exams may include case studies with multiple questions pertaining to each case study. In addition, matching questions are used to identify processes.

  o Exams will be administered online using a lock down browser. The exams may take place during or outside class – refer to Course Content table above.

• Group assignments:

  The Higher Order Thinking (H.O.T.) sheets and class presentations introduce students to an active collaborative method to: synthesize course content; understand pathophysiologica conditions in OT through collaborative work that elevates diverse perspectives, experiences, and perceptions of learning and understanding; provide experience in creating health related education materials.

• Professionalism points: are based on attendance, individual preparation for class, active participation during class, active participation in group work, and respectful behavior with instructor, peer colleagues, and guest speakers.

Grading

The grade for this course is based on multiple assignment categories. Percentages are reflected below:
Assignment Category | Assignment | Due Date | % of Course Grade
---|---|---|---
Individual Exams (2) | Mid-term Final | 10/13 | 24%
Group Exams (2) | Mid-term Final | 12/15 | 6%
Assignments | Lived Experiences Paper Group H.O.T Sheet Presentation | 11/12 12/6 | 30%
Visible Body Quizzes | 2-6 quizzes | Refer to Canvas | 10%
Professionalism: Individual Accountability | Multiple Discussion Posts | Refer to Canvas | 15%
Professionalism: Peer Colleague Accountability | Group H.O.T sheets (~3-4) Group 3 Minute Presentations (~2-3) | Refer to Canvas | 15%

Inclusive Learning Environment

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida’s Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, ”The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans’ Readjustment Assistance Act.” If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu Canvas uses the "Display Name" as set in myUFL. The Display Name is what you want people to see in the UF Directory, such as "Ally" instead of "Allison." To update your display name, go to one.ufl.edu, click on the dropdown at the top right, and select "Directory Profile." Click "Edit" on the right of the name panel, uncheck "Use my legal name" under "Display Name," update how you wish your name to be displayed, and click "Submit" at the bottom. This change may take up to 24 hours to appear in Canvas. This does not change your legal name for official UF records.

House Bill 233 Intellectual and Viewpoint Diversity Act

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Diversity Statement

“\textit{I consider this classroom to be a place where you will be treated with respect, and I welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, beliefs, ethnicities, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, national origins, religious affiliations, sexual orientations, ability – and other visible and nonvisible differences. All members of} this class are expected to contribute to a respectful, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every other member of the class.

Professionalism and COVID

As students pursuing a path in the health professions or public health, it is crucial to demonstrate professional behaviors that reflect integrity and commitment to the health of patients, fellow health professionals, and to populations we serve. To accomplish this, a strong responsibility for the well-being of others must be evident in our decisions, along with accountability for our actions. Professionalism in the health disciplines requires adherence to high standards of conduct that begin long before graduation. This is particularly true during times of health emergencies such as the COVID pandemic, given our professional habits can have a direct impact upon the health of persons entrusted to us.

If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available at no cost and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Visit this link for details on where to get your shot, including options that do not require an appointment: https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org/vaccinations/vaccine-availability/. Students who receive the first dose of the vaccine somewhere off-campus and/or outside of Gainesville can still receive their second dose on campus.

In response to COVID-19, the following professional practices are in place to maintain your learning environment, to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions, and to protect the health and safety of ourselves, our patients, our neighbors, and our loved ones.

- You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times while in Health Science Center classrooms and within Health Science Center buildings even if you are vaccinated.
- If you are sick, stay home and self-quarantine. Please visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website about next steps, retake the questionnaire and schedule your test for no sooner than 24 hours after your symptoms began. Please call your primary care provider if you are ill and need immediate care or the UF Student Health Care Center at 352-392-1161 (or email covid@shcc.ufl.edu) to be evaluated for testing and to receive further instructions about returning to campus. UF Health Screen, Test & Protect offers guidance when you are sick, have been exposed to someone who has tested positive or have tested positive yourself. Visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website for more information.
- Continue to follow healthy habits, including best practices like frequent hand washing.
- Avoid crowded places (including gatherings/parties with more than 10 people)

Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class. Hand sanitizing stations will be located in every classroom.

Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work. If you are withheld from campus by the Department of Health through Screen, Test & Protect you are not permitted to use any on campus facilities. Students attempting to attend campus activities when withheld from campus will be referred to the Dean of Students Office.

Continue to regularly visit coronavirus.UFHealth.org and coronavirus.ufl.edu for up-to-date information about COVID-19 and vaccination.
