OTH 6437L Occupation-based Practice and Rehabilitation: Physical Domain

PURPOSE AND OUTCOME

Course Overview

This course addresses occupation-based practice for adults and older adults with physical impairments resulting in rehabilitation needs. Students will learn to facilitate occupational performance of clients across occupational therapy domains and through the occupational therapy process as related to rehabilitation.

Relation to Program Outcomes

This is the course that corresponds to the 2-credit lab course, OTH 6437L: Occupation-based Practice and Rehabilitation: Physical Domain Lab, which has the same course objectives. The course is situated in the fall semester, second year of the Doctor of Occupational Therapy program. During this semester, the specific application of previously acquired knowledge to more complex activities and issues of participation in adults and seniors is emphasized. Students develop theoretically sound, evidence- and occupation-based interventions grounded upon the analysis and application of clinical competences in the core knowledge of occupational therapy. Classroom and laboratory activities are used to develop and evaluate individual student competencies. The focus is on instructional outcomes (Phase 1) related to the following curricular themes: critical thinking for practice and scholarship, psychomotor skills, collaborative practice, and professionalism.

RESPECT FOR DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSIVITY, AND JUSTICE

It is my intent that students from all backgrounds and perspectives be well served and represented by this course and that the diversity students bring to this class be viewed as a resource, strength, and benefit. It is my intent that my words and actions reflect respect for the diverse experiences and perspectives of others including but not limited to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and expression, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, socioeconomic status, culture, political beliefs or affiliation, and any other class of individuals protected from discrimination under state or federal law. Through inclusive representation, we can learn to better serve our community, peers, family, friends, and future clients or patients.

In order to deepen our understanding of multiple perspectives, it is necessary for us to engage in difficult conversations and topics. Our conversations may not always be easy. We will make mistakes in our speaking and our listening. We will need patience or courage or imagination or any number of qualities in combination with our texts, classmates, ideas, and experiences. And we will always need respect for each other. Your participation, suggestions, and feedback are encouraged and welcome.

If any of our class meetings conflict with your religious events, please let me know so that we can make arrangements for you.

Exam Policy

Two multiple choice exams are given in this course using Canvas. Multiple choice exams are used to assess critical thinking in relation to knowledge and skills taught in the course and are provided in the style used on the NBCOT Certification Exam (e.g., there may be more than one "right" answer, but the student must identify the "best" answer). Students who need accommodations for in-class exams must contact the Disability Resource Center and make arrangements prior to the exam.

Policy Related to Make up Exams or Other Work

Any requests for make-ups due to an excused absence must be submitted to the instructor via email within 48 hours of missing an exam. The student will coordinate with the instructor to schedule a date, time, and place to make up the exam. Any work that is submitted late due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from the Help Desk when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail the instructor within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a late submission without points deducted. See "Assignment Policies" below for more information about late assignments.

Professionalism: Student professionalism will be observed throughout the course and monitored. The Professionalism Rubric will be reviewed on the first day of class (see Canvas for a copy of rubric) and will be used to guide the instructor in monitoring professionalism. Please see the Professional Behavior section of this syllabus for more information on expectations for this course.

Student Grade Issues: If students have issues with a grade, they must submit their concerns in writing to the grading faculty member with documentation to support their position prior to meeting with that faculty member.

Policy Related to Required Class Attendance

Attendance Policies: Attendance to all exams and class activities is mandatory. All students will be held responsible for all material presented and discussed in class activities regardless of attendance. If possible, a student who must be late or absent to a class activity should notify the instructor prior to the scheduled time in order to schedule makeup activities. Some experiences cannot be made up. For students with an excused absence an alternative activity will be provided.

If possible, faculty should be informed of absences prior to the time of the scheduled activity (exam, site visit, assignment deadline, presentation), unless it is an illness or emergency.

- a) A student who must be absent must notify Dr. Galloway (annagalloway@php.ufl.edu), Dr. Horwitz (hhorwitz@php.ufl.edu), AND Dr. Myers (ctmyers@php.ufl.edu) via email prior to the anticipated absence, if possible. (Do not contact guest lecturers.)
- b) See the "Policy Related to Make up Exams or Other Work" above related to missing exams.
- c) See the Attendance Policy in the OTD Student Manual for procedures on turning in the Absence Petition Form.

Please note all faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences. For information regarding the UF Attendance Policy see the Registrar website for additional details:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Assignment policies: Assignment due dates are provided in the course outline in this syllabus. All assignments are due at 11:59pm on the due date assigned unless otherwise instructed. Late assignments will be subject to a 10% reduction in grade for each day late and will be accepted for up to three days after the deadline, unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor.

All written assignments are to be typed. Correct spelling, grammar, legibility, accuracy, logical thought sequence, continuity, smooth transitions and correct referencing are expected for all assignments. References are to be cited in APA format using the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. This reference manual should be used to clarify writing format and style.

All assignments submitted electronically must be submitted using Microsoft Word format (.doc/.docx) or Portable Document format (.pdf) unless otherwise specified by the instructor.

Pass/Fail Competency Grade: Students must demonstrate competency (i.e., pass all elements in the competency assessment) in order to pass the course. A minimum score must be achieved and there must be no safety concerns in order to pass the competency. Students failing to demonstrate competency will be provided feedback on what to study, practice, and/or rewrite in order to successfully pass any failed competency assessment. Students will be given three attempts to pass a competency assessment.

All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Inclusive Learning Environment

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida's Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, "The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act." If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu
