PURPOSE AND OUTCOME

Course Overview: Students will develop the final memorandum of understanding that will serve as the evaluation for the Capstone Experience (OTH 6985) and the complete the proposal for the Capstone Project (OTH6911). The focus of the assignments in this course are on planning for the Capstone Experience and Project to develop an in-depth exposure (beyond a generalist level) in an individualized area of interest within the scope of occupational therapy.

Relation to Program Outcomes: This course builds on the work in previous Doctoral Mentorship courses 1-3. It is the 4th and final course in the series of four doctoral mentorship courses that provide the foundational work for development of the 14-week Doctoral Capstone Experience and Project (OTH 6985 Doctoral Capstone Experience & OTH 6911 Doctoral Capstone Project).

Student Learning Objectives

Upon the conclusion of this course, the student will:

1. Lead collaboration with faculty mentor and site mentor to finalize an individualized Capstone Project proposal.
2. Develop, in collaboration with mentors and doctoral capstone coordinator, an individualized set of goals and objectives for the Capstone Experience.
3. Develop a week by week plan for the Capstone Experience & Capstone Project
4. Complete the signed evaluation plan that includes supervision plan (MOU).
5. Lead and participate in a journal club related to their Capstone Experience topic area.
6. If applicable - Prepare and submit an Institutional Review Board (IRB) application to perform human subject’s research for the Capstone Project.
7. Synthesize the core components (i.e., ethical conduct of scientific/evaluative/developmental/clinical project, confidentiality, privacy, justice, autonomy of client [person or organization], respect for others) to successfully present an individualized capstone project proposal. (UF OTD outcome)
Course activities support the following ACOTE standards:

D.1.2. Ensure that the Doctoral Capstone is designed through collaboration of the faculty and student, and provided in setting(s) consistent with the program’s curriculum design, including individualized specific objectives and plans for supervision.

D.1.3. Preparation for Doctoral Capstone Project. Ensure that preparation for the capstone project includes a literature review, needs assessment, goals/objectives, and an evaluation plan. Preparation should align with the curriculum design and sequence and is completed prior to the commencement of the 14-week Doctoral Capstone Experience.

Instructional Methods

This class uses advanced readings and advanced homework preparation for journal clubs and peer review of assignments. This advanced work/assignments are critical to your ability to engage meaningfully (professionally) and maximally benefit from in class work, facilitated discussions and group activities. Completion of assigned advanced activities will set you to grapple aloud with classmates regarding the new and challenging ideas in your capstone preparations. Your participation fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers and your attendance and engagement in the in class small group activities is required in order to facilitate your overall mastery of the course objectives.

For greater detail on the meaning of letter grades and university policies related to them, see the Registrar’s Grade Policy regulations at: http://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx

Attendance Policies: Attendance to all class activities is mandatory. The success of the course design (i.e., group-based in class activities) used in each class requires the complete preparation and active engagement of all students, thus class attendance and active participation in class is required. No make-ups will be provided for missed classes that are not excused. All students will be held responsible for all material presented and discussed in class and during in class activities regardless of attendance. For students with an excused absence, an alternative activity may be provided.

If possible, the instructor should be informed of absences prior to class unless it is an illness or emergency.

- a) A student who must be absent must notify the course instructor istruckmeyer@phhp.ufl.edu
- b) See the “Policy Related to Make up Exams or Other Work” above related to missing exams.
- c) See the Attendance Policy in the OTD Student Manual

Please note all faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/#text). Additional information can be found here: https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx

Recording within the Course

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.
A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Policy Related to Guests Attending Class

Only registered students are permitted to attend class. However, we recognize that students who are caretakers may face occasional unexpected challenges creating attendance barriers. Therefore, by exception, a department chair or his or her designee (e.g., instructors) may grant a student permission to bring a guest(s) for a total of two class sessions per semester. This is two sessions total across all courses. No further extensions will be granted. Please note that guests are not permitted to attend either cadaver or wet labs. Students are responsible for course material regardless of attendance. For additional information, please review the Classroom Guests of Students policy in its entirety. Link to full policy: http://facstaff.phhp.ufl.edu/services/resourceguide/getstarted.htm

Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center by visiting www.disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation of accommodations to you, which you must then give to me as the instructor of the course to receive accommodations. Please do this as soon as possible after you receive the letter. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester. The College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to assist students in their coursework.

Students in UF Health Sciences programs should be mindful that unique course accommodations may not be applicable in a clinical, fieldwork or practicum setting. Thus, planning a semester in advance with the DRC Health Sciences Learning Specialist, Beth Roland biroland@ufl.edu, is highly encouraged.
Students anticipating a need for accommodations during the Capstone Experience will need to notify all involved mentors in advance of the experience and should begin this discussion with the DRC and mentors PRIOR to the Doctoral Mentorship 4 course.

INCLUSIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida’s Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, “The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans’ Readjustment Assistance Act.” If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu.

To create as inclusive a learning environment as possible, I will work to ensure that the classroom environment is conducive to the sharing of ideas, allowing students to explore relationships among course material, personal, and social experiences. I strive to teach content objectively and create space for a respectful dialogue of ideas related to the impact of race, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability status, age, (etc.) on the topics taught in class. I seek to nurture a supportive peer culture both inside and outside of the classroom, and expect that students will treat each other in caring, empathic, and respectful ways.
